2 Violation of Mandatory Condition: “YOU MUST REFRAIN FROM ANY UNLAWFUL USE OF A CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE.”

On April 12, 2021, at 5:58 a.m., the Sumpter Township Police Department was called in regard to a fight. BROOKS appeared at the home of James Murphy, whom he has reportedly met one time prior. BROOKS was allowed in the home at the request to use his phone. Upon entering the home BROOKS began tearing up the house, and the police were called.

Upon police arrival, BROOKS was standing in the living room, sweating profusely. Police noted he was suffering side effects of narcotics use. BROOKS made the statement “he was tired of this world” but he did not want to kill himself. Police were able to move BROOKS to the front porch where he began to make incoherent statements. BROOKS stated, “he wanted to talk to a supervisor” and advised police that “he had gone to the Motel 8 and smoked crack.” Police continued to keep BROOKS sitting at which time, BROOKS stated, “let’s go” and threw his shirt at police. Police contacted HVA to respond. Despite police attempting to get BROOKS to stay seated, he got up and tried to walk away. Police attempted to stop BROOKS from leaving, which resulted in him violently pulling away. Police had to take him to the ground, where police continued to push him down. BROOKS attempted to grab the police radio and began rolling on the ground removing his clothing. Additional police back up were called at that point. BROOKS began grabbing sticks, grass and mud and threw it at police while making incoherent statements. At one point, BROOKS grabbed the sergeant’s thumb and fractured it.

Upon arrival of the HVA, BROOKS received two doses of sedatives, which had no effect, and he remained combative. Police continued to struggle with BROOKS, who continued to roll around on the ground eventually taking off all of his clothing. BROOKS was restrained on a gurney, loaded into an ambulance and transported to St. Joseph Hospital.

No charges could be located in the 34th District Court for this offense.

The report stated that BROOKS appeared to be under the influence of narcotics and had pinpoint pupils. He could not stand still and was extremely jittery and anxious. Police noted BROOKS to have many fresh cuts and scrapes across his body along with wearing dirty clothes. Police advised him to sit on the porch. BROOKS pointed at police and stated “why don’t you sit down” and proceeded to step towards police. BROOKS then advised police “come on man I just want to get this fu shit over with. I just want to fu die.” BROOKS continued to get more agitated and move toward police. Police requested HVA for his suicidal statements.

BROOKS then began to walk from the front porch to the street and stated “come on lets go.” As police attempted to handcuff BROOKS, he pulled away, placed his hands near the officer’s face and turned towards the officer. BROOKS continued to disobey commands and was eventually taken down by officers after a brief struggle while waiting for HVA to arrive. Once in handcuffs, BROOKS began to roll around and kick officers. Police acknowledged BROOKS to be in a state of excited delirium and he advised he had consumed cocaine and heroin today. BROOKS stated that he was there to meet up with a prostitute and that the price was too good to be true.

The victim stated he did not know BROOKS and that he simply walked into his apartment and began to trash it. The neighbor and victim at the scene stated that he also did not know BROOKS.

The police report indicated that the HVA paramedic who responded knew BROOKS by name, as she had responded to a call on BROOKS for the last three nights for being combative and under the influence of numerous narcotics. The report indicated it took two paramedics, and three officers 25 minutes to secure BROOKS to a gurney. During this time, he continued to roll around and kick toward personnel on scene. Police accommodated HVA’s request to accompany BROOKS to the hospital while he was transported to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital. BROOKS was administered 400 mg of Ketamine along with 10 mg of Versed. Upon arrival, Ypsilanti police were advised that BROOKS was brought in under the same circumstances at 8:20 a.m., by Sumpter police.

On July 4, 2021, officers of the Monroe police were called on a report for erratic behavior. BROOKS had reportedly showed up at 3:00 am at his girlfriend's residence. The police report indicated that BROOKS showed up unannounced. He was advised to return to the rehab facility by the victim, however, BROOKS proceeded to sit at the kitchen table and pull out a large rock of crack cocaine. BROOKS took the victim's car and returned with a tire gauge that he made into a crack pipe. Despite pleas to stop using, BROOKS proceeded to smoke crack-cocaine. He then proceeded to the bedroom upstairs where during a conversation with the victim, BROOKS stated that, "It was his fantasy to smoke crack." After inhaling crack-cocaine, he began to hallucinate. BROOKS was speaking to subjects that were not there and not making any sense. He grabbed a piggy bank and an electrical cord and began displaying them in a threatening manner, however, the victim stated she was never assaulted. BROOKS locked himself in the bedroom after the victim stepped out. In speaking with BROOKS through the bedroom door, police noted him to be confused. He implied that the police were not "real cops" and that officers were going to shoot him. BROOKS made statements to police through the locked door to call the undersigned probation officer as he needs to be back in jail. BROOKS went on to state that he was wearing women's lingerie and police could "come on." The victim requested police remove BROOKS from her home. BROOKS refused to unlock the door, and police forcibly opened it. BROOKS was found lying on the bed, sweating profusely. Medical personnel were summoned and BROOKS advised police that he had taken "four big hits of crack" prior to officers arriving. He was not interviewed due to him being incoherent at this time. BROOKS continued to make statements that his family hates him and he is smoking crack as an attempt to commit suicide. Based on the comments made, a petition was prepared for Monroe ProMedica to conduct a mental health examination.
